

OPTIONS FOR OBSERVING A COURT SESSION ON ZOOM:

If you are a victim or a member of the public who would like to observe court remotely you can log into the Zoom meeting for the day of the week listed below.

Observers and victims who want to observe anonymously:

When logging in, ensure that your camera is off and your microphone is muted. To be automatically admitted to the session on Zoom without being identified you must enter “observer” as your display name on Zoom. Any observers will be automatically admitted to the session.

Victims who want to be heard on the record or do not want to observe anonymously:

If you are a victim and you want to be heard on the record or you want your presence known, use the defendant’s name-victim (ex: John Doe- victim) as your Zoom name to be admitted to the session. Be prepared to provide your name and the case you are associated with. If you want to be heard on the record or want your presence to be known your attendance will not be anonymous.

OPTIONS FOR CALLING IN FOR A COURT SESSION:

Zoom call-in number: 1-602-753-0140. When prompted, enter the Meeting ID and Passcode that’s associated with the Zoom meeting for the day of the hearing listed below.

Observers and victims who want to call in anonymously:

If you are calling in and want to be admitted anonymously you must tell the clerk who answers the phone that you wish to be admitted as an observer.

Victims who want to be heard on the record or listen without being anonymous:

If you are a victim and you want to be heard on the record or you want to listen without being anonymous you will need to provide the clerk who answers the phone with the defendant’s name, your name, and notify them that you are the victim.
